From the Paris Gazette, May 9.

Venice, April 18.

THe 11th of this Month the Senate sent to the Queen Dowager of Poland, and the Electress of Bavaria, to each 5 small Barks laden with Wax, Crystals, Sugar, Wine, and other Refreshments. Those Princesses were very liberal to the Persons who deliver'd these Presents. The Letters from Brescia tell us, that the Imperialists continue to file from the Bressan towards the Veroneze, and the French towards the Mantuan; whence the latter send Reinforcements to Ostiglia and Revere, to oppose the Germans if they attempt to pass the Po to succour Mirandola, the Garrison of which Place is in want of many Things. The Letters from Vicenza inform us, that the Germans are return'd to Monts-Bello and Arzignano, and that they have penetrated even to Lonago, whence they carried off Forrage to San Martino, for the Officers Horses, those of the Troopers or Dragoons being grazing in the Meadows of the Veroneze. These Letters add, that 3000 Germans were expected in the Vicentin, and that they would be follow'd by a greater Number, in order to form the Army Prince Eugene is to command in Italy. Gen. Ruperta, who commanded the Troops of the Republick, is dead at Verona. They write from the Polifines, that several Detachments of German Horse hover on the left Bank of the Po; that the French make the like Motions on the other side of that River, and that they are posted at Ro, and la Rona, where they fortify themselves. Another Body of Germ. Horse were march'd towards Boara on the Adige, near Rovigo, whence they are to advance to Badia, with design, 'tis thought, to lay a Bridge over the Adige, because they have caus'd a great deal of Timber to be carrid thither.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 12.

Milan, April 28. The Duke of Vendome, after several Conferences with the Prince of Vaudemont our Governour General, is gone from hence to take a View of the Posts on the Adda and the Oglio, and to give the necessary Orders to the Forces there, for defending the Passage of those Rivers in case the Imperialists take their March that Way to succour the Duke of Savoy: which done, he will repair to the Army commanded by his Brother the Grand Prior of France. The Troops he has order'd to reinforce that Army, fall down the Po for the greater Expedition. Those he has left in Piemont and Montserrat under the Command of Count Albergotti, are in so bad a Conition, that 'tis believ'd they cannot be able soon to joyn the Duke de la Feuillade, to besiege Turin. We have just now receiv'd Advice, that 5 of the Gentlemen of the Bressan, that were seiz'd by Order of the Grand Prior and carried to Cottiglione, are set at Liberty by Direction from the Duke of Vendome; and that Prince Eugene of Savoy is arriv'd in the Trenin. So that we expect the Armies on both sides will speedily be in Action. The French are very apprehensive Cadix will be attack'd by the Allies; and that the Squadron of Brest, Rochefort, and other Ports in the Ocean, will be hinder'd from passing the Streights and joyning the Squadron of Toulon.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 12.

Vienna, April 29. Yesterday a considerable Number of Boats arriv'd here, with the Bavarian Artillery that was taken out of the Arsenal of Munich; consisting of 100 Pieces of Cannon, among which are 30 battering Pieces: and several Mortars, with a vast Number of Bullets and Bombs: All which are to be put into our Arsenal.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 12.

Ratisbon, May 4. The Envoys of the Protestant Potentates of the Empire, continue to insist that the Grievances in Religion may be redress'd. The Estates of the Circle of Bavaria broke up the 2d of this Month, after they had resolv'd to furnish only the 3d part of their Contingent this Campaign, because of the great Damage their Country has suffer'd. Count Schlick is to go to the Moselle, to assist on the Part of the Emperor, in the Council of War the Duke of Marlborough is to hold touching the Operations of the Campaign.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 12.

Leiden, May 12. Letters from Maestricht of the 9th Instant advise, that Monsieur d'Auverquerque arriv'd there from the Hague the 7th, and was receiv'd with a triple Discharge of the Artillery. That the Duke of Marlborough came thither the 8th, and was likewise welcom'd with a triple Discharge of all the Cannon on the Ramparts. That the same day his Grace din'd with Monsieur d'Auverquerque; that the 9th he held a great Council of War in the House of General Dopff, Governour of the Place, in which his Grace lodges; that the 11th the Army that is to act on the Maese, was to begin to encamp on St. Peter's Hill near Maestricht; that the 9th a Detachment of Horse was sent to pursue one of the Enemy's Parties which had advanc'd on this side the Gete: That Intelligence was brought to Maestricht that the Enemy had already canton'd most of their Troops behind their Lines, and that they had boast'd they would encamp at Montenaken, with an Army of 63 Battallions, and 92 Squadrons.

On Thursday will be publish'd,

Old England: Or, The Government of England by the Monarchical and Hereditary, by the Fundamental Laws of England, and by the Authorities of Lawyers, Historians and Divines; and how it is to be due to the King, not only by the Laws, Ecclesiastical and Civil, but by the Laws of God and Nature; and that neither the Pope, nor any other Power, upon any pretence whatsoever, can take the Subjects of England from their Oaths and Allegiance to their King: In a Letter to a Reformer. With an Appendix. Sold by the Bookellers of London and Westminster. Pr. bound 2 s. 6 d.

Stoughton's Great Cordial Elixir, making the best Purl, in Beer or Ale, and the bitter Draught in Tea or Whetwine, in a minute; prepared only by him, Apothecary, at the Unicorn in Southwark, for forth 14 Years, and now Famous throughout the three Kingdoms, and beyond Sea, for these two things, the Stomach and Blood; Rectifying the former from all its Indispositions, as Wind, Cholick, Worms, want of Appetite, Digestion, Sickneis, Loathing, &c. and cleansing the latter from all its Impurities, as Scurvy, Dropsie, jaundice, Breakings out of the Body, opening all Obstructions whatever; a more particular Account you have in the Pills with it; 'tis so well known and approved of, beyond any one Medicine ever made publick for the Purposes before said, that 'tis needless to say more of it, only, that it is Sold at several Bookellers and Coffee-houses in and about London, at some one such place in most Cities and great Towns in England, and some in Scotland and Ireland, as Edinburgh, Dublin, &c. and at the Author's own House, at 1 s. a Bottle, Wholesale Cheaper. Pray mind you have the right, which has my Name at length, and in a Cypher impress'd on the Seal of every Bottle and Bill with it; for I hear of Counterfeits in the Country, and some in Town under other Titles, and what is sold by the Name of Garraway's particularly, near the Exchange, London, or elsewhere is such, beware of it. Where this Elixir is not yet placed, any Shop-keeper that sends first may be supply'd, and room for very good Profit, and worth while, many now selling 20 or 30 Dozen a Year.

The Royal Chymical Wash-Ball for the Hands and Face, largely experienc'd and daily commended by all that use them; and that for making the Skin so delicately white, soft and smooth, as not to be parallel'd by either Wash, Powder, &c. and is indeed a real Beautifier of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tettors, Ring-worms, Morpew, Sun-burn, &c. rendering it fair and of a delectable Whiteness, soon alter red or rough Hands; and is the best thing in the World to be shaved with, which by comforting the Head, Brains and Nerves, prevents taking Cold; and of a delightful Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury. Is sold only at Mr. Allnut's a Glover at the corner of Popes-Head-Alley against the Royal Exchange, and at Mrs. Giles's Millener and Toyshop next door to Hercules-Pillar-Court near the Inner-Temple-Gate Fleet-street, at 1 s. each, with printed Directions.

The Hypochondriack Digestive POWDER, for Melancholly and Vapours. The great and miraculous Cures this Medicine has wrought (as appears by divers Letters and Testifications) and the universal Reputation it has thereby gain'd, put the Author upon thinking it needful any further to publish it, but he lately hearing of its being counterfeited, and Reports industriously spread, that what is sold at Jacob's is not the right, oblig'd him (that the Publick may not be impos'd upon) to give this notice, that the true Medicine, of which such vast quantities have been there dispos'd of, is still (and never will be elsewhere) sold at Jacob's Coffee-house over against the Angel and Crown Tavern in Threadneedle-street near the Royal Exchange, Seal'd up with Directions, at 3 s. 6 d. the Paper, containing several Doses. And is assuredly for those Distempers the only certain Remedy in the whole Republick of Medicine; It immediately appeases all the most violent and raging Symptoms, and Cures even where the Mind is so confus'd, Spirits and Senses hurried, as to render the Patient Crazy'd, and almost Distracted; for it rectifies the digestive Faculty, expels the Wind, settles and composes the Head and Spirits, rarifies the stagnated Blood and Juices, and dissolves and removes Obstructions which hinder necessary Evacuations, and causes those Distempers, as all Persons that apply to it will happily experience.
